“Cybersecurity is no longer just a technical issue—it’s a leadership challenge, a strategic differentiator, and a cultural imperative.”

THE CORE MISSION

Dewayne Hart equips organizations and leaders to navigate today’s digital threat landscape with clarity, confidence, and command. Drawing on over 20 years of U.S. Navy service and more than a decade advising Fortune 500 companies and federal agencies, Dewayne bridges the critical gap between cybersecurity operations and business outcomes.

His work helps executives move beyond reactive defense toward strategic cyber leadership—where governance, culture, and decision-making define resilience.
